

Alejandra V. Moreno

Senior Research Assistant

Education:

B.S., Santa Clara University, Sociology, 2010

Fields of Specialization:

Stratification; organizational structure; digital inequality; comprehensive sex education curriculum and its implementation in classroom settings

Professional History:

Ms. Moreno joined Sociometrics Corporation in 2010. As a Senior Research Assistant, she is responsible for supporting Principal Investigators in conceptualizing, designing, and implementing research aimed at the development of health promotion programs. For over ten years, Moreno has been an active contributor for and advocate of various not for profit groups focusing primarily on youth, families, civic engagement, and non-profit organizational structure. In addition, Ms. Moreno is currently a Senior Researcher under Dr. Laura Robinson at the Department of Sociology at Santa Clara University.