

SOCIOMETRICS PROJECT No. 24

DEVELOPMENT OF A MICROCOMPUTER ARCHIVE OF SOCIAL RESEARCH ON AGING PHASE I

This Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Phase I project investigated the feasibility of establishing an archive of data from the best U.S. studies dealing with social research on aging. Phase I produced product prototypes that successfully demonstrated the project's feasibility. Phase II funding was subsequently awarded and work continued under Sociometrics Project No. 30.

Sponsor: National Institute on Aging
Gateway Bldg., Room 2C-234
7201 Wisconsin Avenue
Bethesda, MD 20892
(301) 496-3136

Grant No: I R43 AG08895-01 Project Officer: Ronald Abeles

Duration: 03/01/90—08/31/90 Budget: $50,000

Staff: J.J. Card, M. Nelson-Kilger, J.L. Peterson, S. Nelson-Kilger, S. Mizuno
E.C. Peterson