

EVALUATION ASSISTANCE TO THE SAN JOSÉ GRAIL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

The San José Grail Development Corporation, a private, non-profit organization, in partnership with over 20 other community-based organizations strives to fulfill its mission by strengthening families through education; improving and increasing leadership skills; and, improving and increasing community involvement.

Sociometrics provided technical assistance to develop an overarching evaluation framework and tools to assess the programs' impact on families receiving two or more program services. Sociometrics provided an evaluation plan and tools, assist in piloting the evaluation instruments, and provide training to staff to utilize the evaluation plan and tools for future evaluation activities.
