

TEEN BULLYING PREVENTION ACROSS PLACE AND DIGITAL SPACE: THE TOTAL APPROACH PHASE I

This project will develop the Teen-created Online Tolerance and Anti-bullying Library (TOTAL), which will contain bullying prevention programming and resources that are based on a systematic, comprehensive approach incorporating the latest evidence and best practices on bullying prevention and young people's input and involvement. TOTAL will gather into one multimedia resource, a collection of easy-to-use, customizable evidence-based prevention programs, best practices and promising strategies, teen-created bullying prevention activities and content and training materials regarding program adaptation and sustainability.

Sponsor: Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health & Human Development
Address: National Institutes of Health
Bldg 31, Room 2A32, MSC 2425
31 Center Drive
Bethesda, MD 20892-2425

Telephone: (301) 496-1514

Grant No: R43 HD071699-01

Project Officer: Valerie Maholmes

Duration: 02/22/12—01/31/13

Budget: $283,399

Staff: C. Lomonaco; L. Botcheva; T. Kuhn; E. Newman
